

Information according to Art. 13 or 14 Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

In the framework of photo competition via Instagram in the context of the "European Year of Rail", the initiative "Mainline for Europe" processes personal data. We take care of the protection of your personal data.

With these instructions, we inform you about the purposes and the legal basis of the processing of personal data, whom you can contact if you have questions about data protection law and what rights you have under the GDPR.

1) Who is responsible for data processing?

Initiative "Mainline for Europe"
c/o City of Karlsruhe, External Relations
76124 Karlsruhe (Germany)

2) What are the contact details of our data security officer?

You can contact our data security officer by post at the postal address given in section 1 or at the following e-mail address and telephone number:

E-Mail: hartmut.otto@sam-karlsruhe.de

Telefon: +49 721 133-1872

3) What are the purpose and legal bases of the processing of personal data?

a) Purpose

The organization and implementation of PR is one of the public tasks of the Initiative “Mainline for Europe”. In particular, in order to be able to inform interested groups of people about an upcoming event or to inform them about recent developments concerning the project, it is necessary to collect and store your data listed under section 4. We also use your personal data to inform you in case you win the competition.

b) Legal bases

The processing is generally based on Art. 6 (1) letter e) DS-GVO, § 4 Landesdatenschutzgesetz (LDSG). If necessary, your consent serves us as a legal basis according to Art. 6 (1) letter a) DS-GVO.

4) What personal data are processed?

We process in particular:

- First and last name, Instagram Account
- Contact data (e.g. address, e-mail address, telephone number)

5) Where is the origin of your data?

We primarily process the personal data that you provided to us when you handed in your photo for the competition mentioned above.

6) How do we process this data?

Your data will be collected in (electronic) overviews (contact / participant / distribution lists), saved and used on an occasion-related basis for the stated purpose. In addition, data processing takes place in the context of translation.

The photos will be recorded for documentation purposes.

7) Is the personal data transferred to third parties?

No.

8) Is there an obligation to provide personal data?

There is no legal obligation to provide the personal data or to consent to the processing. Without the storage of your data, however, we cannot inform you in case you win a prize.

9) How long is your personal data saved?

We process and save your data only for the time-period required to achieve the purpose of storage and to fulfill our legal duties. Insofar as no special storage periods have been specified and no shorter periods under data security law are to be observed, personal data are generally retained and stored for 10 years in accordance with the “Gemeinsame Anordnung der Ministerien über die Verwaltung des Schriftguts der Behörden des Landes” (AnO Schriftgut). The period begins at the end of the year in which the case was (legally) concluded.

10) What rights do you have as an affected person?

According to the General Data Protection Regulation, you have the following rights:

a) Right to object (art. 21 GDPR)

Insofar as we process your personal data in order to perform our public tasks in accordance with Art. 6 (1) letter e) GDPR, you can object at any time to the future processing of your data for reasons arising from your particular situation. The objection must be addressed to the data controller (see section 1).

b) Right of information (art. 15 GDPR)

You have the right to receive information from us as to whether and - if so - what personal data we process from you. The application must be submitted to the data controller (see section 1).

c) Right of revision (art. 16 GDPR)

You can request from us immediately the revision of personal data concerning you, if these are not (more) applicable. In the case of incomplete data, you are entitled to completion, taking into account the details of the processing. The application must be submitted to the data controller (see section 1).

d) Right to erasure (art. 17 GDPR)

If the legal requirements are existent, you can request the deletion of your personal data. The request must be addressed to the data controller (see section 1).

e) Right to restrict processing (art. 18 GDPR)

Under the conditions set out in Article 18 GDPR, you may require us to restrict the processing of your personal data. The request must be addressed to the contact person in the office for data processing (see section 1).

f) Right to data portability (art. 20 GDPR)

You are only entitled to this right with regard to personal data that you have provided to us yourself. You can then request that we provide your data to you in a machine-readable format or that we transfer it to someone else in charge. However, this right only exists if you have consented to the data processing (Art. 6 (1) letter a) or Art. 9 (2) letter a) GDPR) or the processing on a contract in accordance with Art. 6 (1) letter b) GDPR and the data processing is carried out using automated procedures.

This does not apply if the processing of personal data is necessary for the performance of a task that is in the public interest or is carried out in the exercise of official authority that has been delegated to the initiative "Main Line for Europe" (Art. 6 (1) Letter e) GDPR). The application must be submitted to the office responsible for data processing (see section 1)

g) Right to withdraw consent (art. 7 (3) GDPR)

If the processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Revoking your consent does not affect the legality of the processing carried out on the basis of your consent up to the point of revocation. The revocation must be sent to the body responsible for data processing (see section 1).

h) Right to lodge a complaint (art. 77 (1) GDPR)

If you have any questions or concerns with regard to the processing of your personal data, you can contact the responsible contact the initiative "Main Line for Europe" by post or email. You can also forward your request to the official data protection officer of the initiative "Main Line for Europe". The corresponding addresses can be found under section 2.

If you are of the opinion that we have not or not fully complied with our obligations, you can lodge a complaint with the State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information Baden-Württemberg (LfDI BW) without prejudice to other legal remedies.
